The Road To Emmaus

Luke 24 shares the wonderful, true story of Jesus being raised from the dead. It tells of several groups of people who saw Him after He was risen.

One of these was a group of two disciples who were walking from Jerusalem to a village called Emmaus. The story is recorded in verses 13-35 of Luke 24, and tells how Jesus joined their walk and discussion. As it got late, they invited Him to dine and rest with them, and they finally realized it was Jesus in breaking of bread.

This story paints a beautiful picture of the relationship we can have with Jesus Christ today, and with our Father in Heaven through Jesus. And it is all made possible by Christ's death, burial and resurrection.

In a very real sense we can walk with Jesus today, study with Him, and break bread with him just as they did on the Emmaus road.

We can walk with Jesus in the sense of fellowship, and going the same direction as Him. We can study with Jesus the same fulfilled prophecies they did that day, as well as see that the New Testament scriptures were delivered by Jesus. And we can break bread with Jesus by expressing our thanksgiving for the food and blessings He supplies, and in a very special way in our Communion service.

Walking With Jesus

Let's look first at walking with Jesus. Luke 24:13-15, "And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them."

We can walk with Jesus today, as well, by which I mean that we can have fellowship with Him, and walk in the same direction as Him to the same destination. This is a blessing given to us in the Christian age, now that He is risen from the dead. Think of the many songs that express this truth. "Footprints of Jesus", "I Walk With The King", and "Stepping In The Light" just to name a few.

We have fellowship with Jesus in several ways. First of all there is fellowship with Jesus through His Word, I John 1:3, where the apostle John writes, "That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ." Do you see? The apostles and other early writers were eyewitnesses of Jesus. They preached and wrote God's Word, as Jesus Himself delivered it to them. Through their word we can have fellowship with them, and with Jesus who gave it.

In Matt. 18:20 we see that we have fellowship with Jesus by having fellowship with each other. "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." We have fellowship with Him through faith, Eph. 3:17, "That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,". We have fellowship with Him through obedience, John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." We have fellowship with Jesus when we suffer with Him, Phil. 3:10, "That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;".

These scriptures show that to walk with Jesus in fellowship, we must walk in the same direction. Amos 3:3, "Can two walk together, except they be agreed?" There can be no fellowship, no walk with Jesus if we insist on going our own way, as we read in I John 1:5-7, "This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin."

It then follows that if we do go in the same direction as Jesus, we can expect to arrive at the same destination. John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Verses 2-3, "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." What an exciting promise!

Studying With Jesus

As the two disciples were walking with Jesus, before they even realized it was Him, they were talking about the recent events. They were discussing how Jesus had been crucified, and they didn't understand it, because they expected different things. In verses 25-27 of Luke 24 Jesus began to study with them and reveal the many prophecies to them that He fulfilled, "Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself."

We can study with Jesus as well, in the sense that we can study these same prophecies, and see that Jesus fulfilled them, and proclaim it to the world. We can see further that Jesus delivered the New Testament scriptures to the world, through His apostles.

Jesus declared many times that the words He was giving were from God. Looking at just one example, please turn to John 12:49-50, where Jesus said, "I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak."

Jesus gave God's Word to the world through His apostles, as again we can see in many scriptures. Let's look to John 17:6-8, where Jesus said, in a prayer to God, "I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee. For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me." The apostles not only preached this word, but wrote it down, so that we have it today, I Cor. 14:37, "If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord."

Breaking Bread With Jesus

In continuing the story we see the two disciples breaking bread with Jesus in Luke 24:28-31, "And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further. But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them. And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight."

Let's look at two ways we can break bread with Jesus today.

First of all, let's understand that we break bread with Him in a spiritual way when we express our thanksgiving to God through Jesus for the food and other blessings He provides. It is actually a three-step process: to acknowledge His blessings, be thankful for them, and express our thanksgiving to him.

In Phil. 4:19 we see the apostle Paul acknowledge the provision of God for us through Jesus, "But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus." In I Tim. 4:4-5 we see the other two steps, being thankful and expressing it in prayer, "For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer."

The second, very special, way we break bread with Jesus is in the Communion service. I Cor. 10:16, "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?" We do so in thankful memory of how Jesus gave His life on Calvary's cross on our behalf, I Cor. 11:23-26, "For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come."

So we see that this story does indeed paint us a picture of the relationship we can each have with Jesus as Christians. Our fellowship with Him is spiritual instead of physical, but has the same elements.

We can walk with Jesus, in the sense of fellowship, and going the same direction to the same destination. We can study with Jesus, in the sense of seeing the prophecies that He fulfilled, and studying the New Testament scriptures that He delivered. And we can break bread with Him, when we express our thanks to God through Jesus for the food He gives us, and when we remember in the Communion service Christ's loving sacrifice for us on the cross.

Let's close with Gal. 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

In Christian love,

Is Baptism Necessary?

Tertullian [A.D. 145-200] wrote: "But the heretics provoke further questions. They say, 'Baptism is not necessary for those to whom faith is sufficient. After all, Abraham pleased God by a sacrament of faith, not water.' But in all cases it is the later things that have conclusive force. The later [revelation of God] prevails over the earlier. Granted, in former days there was salvation by bare faith, before the suffering and resurrection of the Lord. But now faith has been enlarged, and has become a faith that believes in His birth, suffering, and resurrection. So the ordinance [of faith] has been amplified by the addition of the sealing act of baptism. This is, so to speak, the clothing of the faith which was previously bare, which now cannot exist without its proper law. For the law of baptizing has been imposed, and the formula prescribed: 'Go," He says, 'teaching the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.' (Matt. 28:19). 'Unless a man has been born again of water and Spirit, he shall not enter into the kingdom of the heavens.' (John 3:5). Those words have tied faith to the necessity of baptism. Accordingly, all who became believers after that time were baptized."

Some of the early church leaders were very direct in their writings. Tertullian used the word "heretics" to describe those that say baptism is not necessary. Another of his statements is, "All who became believers after that time were baptized." This statement does explain who believers really are. It does correlate with the words of Jesus in Mark 16:16, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.".

Believers are baptized; unbelievers are not.

Flash forward to the Acts of the apostles and one will find that Philip was involved in the very response intended by Jesus Christ in the above verse, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved". See Acts 8:12, "But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women." This is the message Tertullian taught, "All who became believers after that time were baptized."

May all have peace in Christ.

Sis. Mary Ann Anderson (86) of Alamogordo, NM, passed away on Jauary 9, 2010.

Cards and Letters

Baron, OK

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

This is to report to the brotherhood of happenings here at the Baron, OK, congregation.

There has been an abundance of cold and flu symptoms of which some are having trouble overcoming.

Three-year-old Tyland Hollan, grandson of Bro. Jake and Sis. Barbara Hollan, has cancer and needs the prayers of the faithful.

Sis. Jackie Brown is having serious lung problems.

Sis. Darlene Warford is having breathing problems as well as congestion in her lungs.

Sis. Lois Thornburg is experiencing serious breathing problems and has been unable to attend church services for several months.

Please include all these in your prayers.

This year is almost over which means we are one year closer to home. Praise God! Our prayer is to meet you there.

Happy New Year from Broken Bow!

We hope this letter finds everyone across the miles spiritually strong and physically well. We would like to extend a warm invitation to anyone traveling our way this new year to stop by, visit a spell, and attend services if possible at 509 North Costilow in Broken Bow. Our meeting times are Sunday mornings at 10:00 and Sunday evenings at 6:00. We are fortunate to have several capable speakers (Bro. Doug Ferguson, Bro. George Phipps, Bro. Jesse Phipps, Bro. Charlie Fogg, Bro. Will Bunn and Bro. Mike Harcrow) that rotate to bring each week's lesson.

The month of November was a busy one as we prepared for our weekend meeting. It is amazing how quickly the meeting has come and gone. We enjoyed wonderful fellowship, lessons of encouragement from God's Word, great singing, and so much more. It is always very uplifting to have visitors from other congregations. Thanks to all that attended and helped to make our meeting successful. We ended our month of November with a Sunday night campfire singing at Brother Dan Treats. Approximately 30 attended and enjoyed the great gospel singing, warm campfire, and food.

In December, our church adopted six angels from Broken Bow's Angel Tree list. We purchased coats, clothing, shoes, undergarments, and toys for the youngsters selected. We also purchased hand cream and socks for the residents of both Broken Bow and McCurtain Manor Nursing Homes. After morning services on December the 5th, we had a light meal at the church, practiced singing Christmas carols, and wrapped the gifts purchased. The Angel Tree presents were then delivered to KKBI, our local radio station, to be given to the children before Christmas. The nursing home gifts were distributed to the residents after singing carols at each facility Sunday afternoon.

This past year has certainly been an eventful one for our congregation. Although the events were not all happy ones for us, we have been richly blessed. There is an old saying, which states that individuals can look at their lives as a glass- either being half-full or half-empty. God does not promise us a life without struggles. However, he does promise us the strength to persevere and overcome- if our trust is in Him. The congregation at Broken Bow chooses to believe that our glass is MORE than half-full — full of God's grace, mercy, and love. God's has placed many wonderful Christian Brothers and Sisters in our lives and given us many daily blessings we might otherwise miss if our hope was not anchored in Christ. Looking back at 2009 and forward to 2010, words cannot express the humbling gratitude we feel for the love of God in our lives.

Sincerely,
Costilow Street Church of Christ
Broken Bow, OK

Flora Vista, NM

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

Greetings from the church of Christ of Flora Vista, NM. We are all as well as can be expected, given the time of the year that is upon us. There is still a hole in our hearts and in our congregation with the loss of our dear Bro. Rex Mickey, but we are working toward the reward that he is now attaining.

We haven't had any baptisms or weddings or any news to submit other than the fact that we are all well.

We are sending $500.00 to help defray some of your expense. We know that it is not much, but we will try to send more later on.

Thank you and keep up the good work as we sincerely appreciate your newspapers. The Christian Courier is invaluable to us all.

Yours in Christ,
Bro. Abe Lobato

Glenwood, WA

Our dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Glenwood, WA, congregation is excited to announce plans for our 2010 meeting. It will be starting Tuesday July 6th, and running through Sunday July 11th. This will give a travel day between Yakima's meeting and ours. We are delighted that Bro. Levi Smith of the Sacramento, CA, congregation and Bro. Jason Christianson of the Gleed, WA, congregation have accepted our invitation to be our speakers. They are both excellent young speakers, and we look forward to having them. We invite any and all who can come be with us to do so. You will enjoy the fellowship, singing, and preaching, and be edified.

We enjoyed Bro. Levi's visit for three weeks in December, and his lessons two Sundays. It makes us look forward to the meeting even more.

Bro. Greg Stacy will be going in for surgery to repair his injured shoulder in late January. Please keep him in your prayers.

Sis. Jeannie Boroff is doing well since her hip surgery. She has gone from coming to church in a wheelchair to a walker, and now sometimes not even that. She is doing much better, and we are very happy for her.

We missed our Carter family this weekend as they were over the mountain. Barbara's dad, Bro. Gene McKinney, was put into the hospital with a collapsed lung and other problems. He is scheduled for gall bladder surgery on January 13th. We need to please keep him, and all our sick, in our constant prayers.

We hope to take in some of the other meetings this year, and are looking forward to them.

May God keep you in His care,

The congregation at Glenwood, WA

Lorenzo, TX

Hello Brothers and Sisters in Christ;

We here in Lorenzo are all doing pretty well. We have had bumps and falls along the way, but all in all we are very blessed.

We did have some sadness our way this weekend. Wynetta McCay's father, Bro. Winford Mullins, 83, passed away. He had been battling sickness off and on for a while. Despite our prayers, the Lord had his own time table and called for Winford to leave us.

Aunt Reba White fell a few months ago, and although we missed her for a handful of services, one Lords' day morning, here she comes, just as determined to worship with everyone as ever. And we are glad to have her.

We very much enjoyed Sis. Earlene Jared of Indiana and Bro. Willie & Sis. Mary Howe from Duncanville, TX, over the holidays.

Besides a few minor scares and illnesses (although our Brothers and Sisters, at the time did not feel like they were minor) health wise we are mostly good.

We are planning to host a meeting again this summer, although we have not set details in stone. We hope we can have choice of our speaker and exact dates soon. It may possibly encompass the weekend of the 4th of July. So keep that in mind as you look at your summer plans.

In Christian Love,

The Lorenzo Church of Christ

Yuma, AZ

Hello to our brothers and sisters in Christ.

A new year has started and hopefully we can begin this new year with renewed faith and that shared hope of life everlasting. I started writing this letter back in December just before Christmas and I got lazy. We are all still doing fairly well down here in Yuma. Our Sis. Florence Fuller is still having trouble getting around with her bad hip and knees as are some of the rest of us. Our Sis. Ruth Duncan is also not feeling very good either. Let us remember our brother Gene McKinney in our prayers during his time of illness too. The weather is so close to perfect right now so there shouldn't be anything for me to complain about. We had some friends come down and visit with us a couple of weeks ago and it was so nice to see them again. Melvin and Iris Stewart along with their granddaughter Roseanne and great grandson Joshua are now living in or around Van Buren, Arkansas. They had lived here for a number of years but wanted to return to Arkansas where they were originally from. We sure missed them after they moved away.

We have started to discuss our March meeting and are looking forward to it. We are going with the guest speaker format. We like that option in that we get to hear as many different speakers as possible. Last year we had enough speakers to go through the entire meeting, a lot of different thoughts. The Church here in Yuma has about 6 spots to hook up travel trailers, popup tents etc; if you have a motor home or travel trailer and can bring it along with you we will see to it that your unit can be hooked up to at least power and water, this would help us greatly. There are usually about six trailers that we have here locally that we hookup during the meeting. We can accommodate several more, most of you know our facilities but in case you are unfamiliar with our church we have men's and women's restroom and shower stalls are available at the Church kitchen. If any know or as time goes by and you are able to make a decision to come to the meeting we would like to know in advance so that we can make arrangements and adjustments. Kids, we love kids, I know that it is difficult to bring children to the meeting because of school but if possible bring some with you and we will do our utmost to entertain them and more importantly educate them with the scriptures. The opportunity to be with so many knowledgeable teachers would be such a waste not to take advantage of it if possible. So many of our brotherhood have gone on and with them went their knowledge of this precious word.

Any suggestions that you might have for study, visiting, menus, needs etc. just let us know and we will accommodate if at all possible. Keep our congregation in your prayers for our spiritual and our physical health. We love you all and hope to see you.

Denny and Susie Davis, the Yuma congregation

In Loving Memory of Winford Mullins

The church family here at Lorenzo, TX, grieves with family & friends in the loss of our Bro. Winford Mullins, 83, on Sunday, January 10, 2010, surrounded by his children.

He will be greatly missed by 2 daughters, Sis. Wynetta McCay of Lubbock, TX; Sis. Faye Burkhart of Nevada; and 1 son, Bro. Borden Mullins of Oklahoma and their spouses, as well as grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and many other family & friends.

He was outwardly defined as a hard-working Texan by his boots, Stetson hat, and his pickup. He is warmly remembered as a faithful husband, father, and grandfather. He was most importantly spiritually defined as a humble and faithful man of God.

He fought the fight, finished the course, and kept the faith, hence he has gone to his reward.

He was carried to his rest in a pickup on January 14, 2010. Please remember his family and us in your prayers.

In Loving Memory

of Bro. Marvin Daniels

Bro. Marvin Daniels was sick for several years with heart, lungs, and cancer finally taking him.

Our family and the church family at Goshen, AR, will miss him and his sermons very much. Bro. Marvin had been a member of the church for over 50 years.

We ask prayers for his family as they cope with their loss.

Bro. Marvin was born at Muse, OK, on November 24, 1926.

He passed away on December 4, 2009, at home with his family.

Funeral services were on December 7, 2009, at Beard's Chapel in Fayetteville, AR, with Bro. Paul Andrews officiating, followed with cremation.
