SECOND EDITION OF

THE BIG SPRUCE CAMP MEETING NEWS

This special edition is a labor of love.
All those who took the time to write letters were inspired by the Lord, to write because of the blessing they received during the meeting.

The second chapter of Ephesians, on the back page,
was chosen because it is a very important chapter
in the Bible, showing what our Lord did for us.
It is meetings such as Big Spruce, that reminds us of the great and precious sacrifice, and love that God and our Lord has shown toward us. It is but a little sacrifice for us to attend such wonderful meetings, in order for us to receive wonderful and great blessings of the promises of our Gracious God.
These meetings lets us "know what is the hope of his calling,
and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance
in the saints." mean to us as followers of Christ.
We thank the Lord for you attendance.

Camp: July, 1988

In camp I liked the activities, such as horseshoes and fishing. I also liked the wonderful lessons and singings. Chris Forsman

I liked the playing horseshoes and baseball. I liked the people there. I met nice people. The activities were really fun. Next year I hope to come back. Eric Foundation, Port Orchard

Hi: My name is Saya Vanette Orendorff and I am from Washington. I liked camp a lot. I hope I can come to camp next year with my dad and mom and my brothers and sisters. I love you all. by...by...

Note: Here is a comment from one of the "wee barens" that was at Delta, who had helped her dad. "I liked the whing whings, the watee, and all the babies." Britni McCay ($1\frac{1}{2}$ years old)

To my friends in Christ:

I have really been uplifted by my week of fellowship here at camp. Meeting new christians and getting reaquainted with old ones is encouraging. I enjoyed the preaching, the studies and even the work. But my favorite part would have to be the singing, nearly every night after services 50 to 100 voices lifting praise to God. It was great. Not only does it sound good, but it makes you feel good, and I am sure the Lord is well pleased. I was also very encouraged by the number of young people who came to the Lord and those who re-committed their lives to Him. They are the future of the church....A BRIGHT ONE, thanks to everyone who made it such a positive experience for us all.

See everyone next year, Lord willing.

Your brother in Christ, David McCay

Dear fellow christians:

This was my first time at the Delta camp meeting. I had a lot of fun and met many friends in Christ. I learn a lot from the lessong that were given and I loved the singing and learned many new songs. I now feel I know more about the church of Christ and I have my church family, from all over. I hope to see you next year.

In Christian love, Melinda Wren, Selah, Wa. congregation (age 17)

Hello:

My name is Becky Angel. I am from the Seattle congregation. Some of the things I liked best about camp was the 4th of July. I got baptized and that was the best thing that happened to me at camp. Another thing, was to get to come to camp. The last time I came to camp was when I was 4 and now I am 12½. I like all the people. Some of them I have known and some I just met. Even though the traveling was hard, camp was a blast. I will never forget it. I will be back.

I liked pretty much everything. I liked playing horseshoes. I liked playing baseball and I liked playing with the kids. Love,
Mark Staley

Cedra Wood, age 4, Lorenzo, Texas congregation

I liked Teresa and I liked Jeremy. I liked the hummingbirds, kind of. I liked to play with that baby, Janea, and play games. You know I like to go to camp. One of the things I like, is hearts.

Hello from Stockton, Calif:

My name is Aaron Logan and I am 9 years old. I went with my grandma and my grandpa and my sister Stacy to camp. My aunt Trisha and uncle Lou, plus four cousins and a friend of Kims, (mu cousin) went to camp. We traveled along with Dorothy Johnson from Sacramento, Ca.. My cousin Eric and I rode a lot with her in her motor home. At camp I met a lot of people. We went to church, had singings, lessons and played a lot of games. We had a big campfire one night, and most everyone sang songs. I liked baseball the best. I want to go next year to camp and meet more people. Hope to see you next year.

If you were not there, you don't know what you were missing. We pray that you can make it next year. (This was sent in without a name, but it has a lot of prayers going with it and hoping next year is bigger yet).

This year was so great. It had so much love that no one could stop it. My favorite part was going to church. Without this I would have never had met one special person. The love we shared is greater than the goodbyes every year.

Dear brethren:

Camp was an inspiration to us all. Speaking for my family, as well as myself, we were all able to gain spiritually. I thoroughly enjoyed the fellowhsip, the singing and christian love that encompassed us all. Many good things happened that glorified God and inspired us all to work harder. I would recommed the camp in Cedaredge, Co. to anyone in search of meeting other christians from all over America.

In Christian love: Brian Jr. Ross (18) Baron, Ok. congregation

To the Cedaredge congregation:

We enjoyed the fellowship, singing and everything else about the camp this year. Thanks so much for making us feel so welcome. Lord willing, we will be back next year and try to bring some one with us.

Frank & Doris Ridlon, Aztex, Mew Mexico congregation

Camp: July 1988

I enjoyed the lessons both in the young mens services and the night services. Its great to hear from a different person each time. I also enjoyed the Bible discussions and singing. I would like to thank Diane and Debbie Wilkerson for some neat meals and lots of hard work. Something new was tried this year. Big-brothers and big-sisters. It worked out really well. Erlene Forsman

My love for everyone this year has grown so much. I didn't think it possible. The friendships made new, the strengthening of old. It is really great comfort in this world. Brothers and sisters keep the faith. See you next year. Larry Wood, Lorenzo, Tx.

This is the 15th year Jimmie and I have been to the camp meeting in Colorado. We have met so many people that we probably would never have met otherwise. I believe the fellowship is encouraging and strengthening. There are so many good memories. Jaetta Loftis

I really enjoyed the fellowship and the singing. I look forward to coming back next year. Kim Forsman, Lorenzo, Texas

The fellowship, singing and I guess most of all is being asked to take part in the young men's service. I'm 40 years old.....

If your light unto the world is dim, maybe you need to rekindle it. If you didn't come to Delta camp meeting, you missed a lot. Everyone leaving camp this year is leaving with a bright light to shine unto all. Please plan to come next year. Take part in our discussions, singing praised to God and listening to God's Word read and explained unto us. Enjoy the love and fellowship with God's children from congregations across the country. Your sister in Christ.

Betty McKinney

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The amount of fellowship and edification that was at Delta camp meeting 88, was tremendous. This camp meeting was the first Delta camp that my family has been able to attend and it truly has been a blessing to be able to hear the many lessons that were brought to the pulpit. The idea of having a camp meeting for all the many congregations in the Church of Christ was indeed inspired by God so that the members of Christ's Body may come together and draw from one another. The temptations of the world are many and only by drawing strength from one another and having faith can we overcome the temptations. Besides, the many lessons that were brought before congregations, there were discussions and games. My family and I believe very strongly in the idea of this camp and we would encourage all members of the church of Christ to attend and to draw strength and edification from it.

In Christian love,
Michael and Felicia Geho and son Michael 11, Seatle, Wa. congregation.

WE LOVE YOU ALL, GOD BLESS AND HAVE A SAFE TRIP HOME!
VERLIE, KEN AND VERDA

The gospel meeting at Delta, Colorado is a truly unforgetabel week. I enjoyed meeting new brothers and sisters in Christ and seeing brethren I haven't been with in years. Delta is also a spiritually uplifting experience whether much studying, singing and fellowship here brings christians close together. Everyone here becomes very special to and makes you feel as though they are family. But it isn't suprising, after all aren't we all family in Christ? Hope to see more of you there next year.

[Ephesians 2:19]

"Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God."

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

I had the pleasure in bringing a new christian with me this year. She is my girlfriend, Melinda Wren, from the Selah congregation. I thought that the Delta camp meeting was a very big success and I learned a lot from the sermons that were preached by the brethren. We were blessed to be able to listen to the young brothers give lessons in mid-day. The singing we had during the church services and every evening was beautiful. I learned many new songs and met many new friends. There were quite a few little kids and babies that were here and made it very joyful. We had three (3) people accept Jesus Christ into their hearts, and were baptized. We also had many people just go forward and asked for the prayers of the church. We had a lot of good times that we all can cherish for the rest of our lives. I think everyone had a good time and I hope to see you all next year and the years to come. If possible, bring a friend or two and maybe their eyes will be cleared from the world. See ya all next year. In Christian love.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

I thank the Lord and the Forsmans for allowing me to come to Camp meeting 88. You all have ministered to me. From Verlie and her hugs (which were like having Jesus' arms around me), to ministry during the services to all of the youths and adults that opened your arms and hearts to my children. I have a renewed fervency for God's Word and much love in my heart for all of you. God bless you

In Christ: Jill Maurice, Jeremy and Jeneah

I want to tell you how encouraging it was for us to hear very good lessons from the young men's service. We heard five (5) lessons during their services. Chris and Skipper Forsman gave them the first day and we were so proud of them. The next service, Brother Matthew Shepherd, and the last one, Brother Paul Warford and Brother Brian Ross spoke. These young men's presentation were very excellent and their lessons were tops. Another young man that spoke during the regular services that one would have thought to be inexperenced was Mike Geho. Mike has been a christian for only a short time and didn't have the advantage of being raised in the church of Christ. But he gave a lesson that would be a credit to a much older christian. Another feature that I think is very good for all of us, are the discussions. Of course all the christian association in all aspects were good. In christian love. Ken and La Verne Harper.

I wish to report on my observation of the 1988 camp meeting at Cedaredge, Colorado. This was the largest group of christians that have been at this camp and the most congregations represented. I met brethren whom I had never met before and this made me very happy. The lessons and discussions were very uplifting and I heard no one saying they were sorry they had spent the money to come. The church at Cedaredge, Co. did a wonderful job as always. My sister, Anna Lee Warner went with Nell and I and we all express the same things. We were greatly impressed by the work and lessons of the younger brethren and feel that if they continue to grow in the grace and knowledge of Christ and continue the good fight of faith against the sins of the world, it will not need to worry about the future of the church. While we are glad to be home with the brethren at Selah. We miss those we love and we left to go our seperate ways home. It was a great meeting and hopefully we can attend many more.

With love, and praying for the unity of the faith.

Being here at the camp and having fellowship with all the christians here has been a very uplifting experience for me. You can not only see the love here, but most importantly you can feel it. I have thoroughly enjoyed myself and hope to get to attend next year. I encourage everyone to attend camp because it feels so wonderful, and it is good to see all those attending strive for the same thing you are.....a home in heaven.

Happy are our hearts with love, because of the fellowship with our brothers and sisters in Christ here at Big Spruce camp. It seems like every year more young people are coming and the church is growing. That is what having a camp meeting is all about. I believe in this camp, and I pray that more of our brothers and sisters will make plans for next year. If you can't come please feel free to support the camp in any way that your can.

To the Special Edition Courier:

During the past two years I have came to the meeting at Delta. I feel that this meeting has helped people grow closer together and more spiritually mature. Also I would like to say that this camp meeting is fun. It seems that there is always something to do, whether it be singing together, having discussions, or taking trips to town. I have made a lot more new friends in the church. As far as Texas to Oklahoma, and these are the friends I will have forever. I would like to see other people from my congregation and others to make an effort to come to Delta. Believe me, YOU WON'T FORGET IT.

Caryn Foundation - Port Orchard, Wa. congregation. Age 16

Hello to everyone:

Our first experience at camp was a pleasure. We enjoyed hearing various speakers, private discussions, group discussions and all the fellowship. It was also uplifting to see the young adult participation. It was nice to see that we can discuss, calmly, our view points on the scriptures. We also enjoyed the singing and the many activities that were planned. We really appreciate the Cedaredge congregation and all that they did to keep the camp running smoothly. Also we compliment the cooks.

Sorry you missed it:

From one Delta meeting to the next, I have seen myself and others grow stronger. This year I have become closer to the Lord at Delta by being around other christian brothers and sisters and doing what He wants us to do. You get the strength you need at meetings like Delta, to help you overcome the worldly pleasures throughout the year. I felt like I deepened a lot of friendships and grew closer to people, that I have never gotten to know before. In the church of Christ, there are some very special friends to me. Everyone I met at camp has helped me to grow stronger just a little bit more. I know heaven will be worth it all. We just have to pray and be strong for one another. I think some very important ideas were restated at camp this year. One of the most important ones is to get your heart and God together. God can be your best friend if you just let him. All that you need to do is just knock on the right door. [Matt 7:7] I thank the Lord that I had a chance to go to Delta this year. Lord willing, I will be back next year. I hope to see all of you there.

In christian love, Lori Forsman, Seattle, Wa. congregation

Vandra Wood, Lorenzo, Texas congregation:

There was a lot of people at Delta this year. Many that we had never met before. Some that we had not seen in years. Some that were blessed to have seen last year and this year. There was so much to do and so many people to talk to. My biggest complaint was that there were not enough hours in the day to do all the things we all wanted to do. The discussions, young men's services, singings and activities with the kids. I hope that everyone went home feeling uplifted and renewed as I have. The local women did a good job in the kitchen. Planning the meals, serving, and keeping the kitchen clean. I also appreciate all the ones who paid extra attention to my children, helping them to feel special and loved, apart from our great christian family.

To the Special Edition Courier:

It is noon saturday and I just got back from a baptizing where another precious name was added to the Lamp's Book of Life. Earlier in the week, two other names were addeo to this Book, one of which was my son, Brent. I feel though that they are all of my kids, and now they are children of God. There has been so much love and positive christian fellowship demonstrated here. The knowledge that comes from all over the country, that others share, with one heart, and one mind, perhaps has never been better demonstrated than here. Was the effort, time and money, necessity to come here, worth it? My thoughts as I leave here: "IT WAS GOOD FOR ME TO BE HERE."

See you in 89 - - - - - - Jerry McCay

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

My stay at the Delta camp meeting was certianly no less enjoyable than the two previous times that I have gong. When I say it was enjoyable, I do not wish to give the impression that the only things done here were "fun" activities. (although there were many "fun" things, done in pure fellowship) And the fellowship was outstanding. There were also Bible discussions and services, including the young men's services that proved to be uplifting, educational, and enjoyable because the feeling seemed to be of ginuine insterest and a sincere will to learn more about the Will of God. I also took a great joy, as I know God and all the angels in heaven did, in witnessing the three baptisms take place. The old friendships that were renewed there and the new friends that I made, I am sure, will last a long time.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

This was my first trip back to the camp meeting in 7 years. I really enjoyed it and I am thankful for the opportunity to come. I learned more of the Word of God, etc. But something that really excited me was seeing the young people take over some of the responsibility. I believe we are going to be ready when it is our turn to lead the chrurch. I wish I could have arrived earlier in the week, and next year, if the Lord wills, I will come and bring some family and friends. Any of you kids that are interested in corresponding with the kids your age in other congregations, please send you name, address, hobbies, likes, dislikes, nicknames and birthdays to me and a list of kids in your age group will be sent back to you. Any one is welcome, even little kids like to get mail.

Thanks for everything Cedaredge:

Hello everyone:

Delta camp meeting has got to be the best seven days out of the year. The fellowship with christian friends your aown age, and being able to experience the good memories and laugh about the old ones. It is a lot of fun and I encourage everyone to come and share the fun times. I also pray that you meet some of the very special people of whom I have had the great opportunity to meet. I already can't wait to see them again. I miss you all so much already. I will never forget any of you. God Bless you all. [11 John 12]

Dear ones:

Once again Big Spruce camp opened July 3, 1988 for one week. Many came from eleven states, representing a number of congregations of the church of Christ and their friends. The Wilkerson and Baldwin families worked long and hard since the 1987 camp to make this years' camp nice and pleasurable for all. Many hours go into a camp meeting to make it a success. The ones at Cedaredge congregation are to be commended; a job well done. I for one had a nice uplifting week. WE heard about one dozen sermons from all ages, Bible study and discussions, both private and as a group, lots of good singing, fellowship in general sightseeing and games. Thankful to God for a number coming forward for the prayers of the church and for three (3) baptisms. Lets all help these people to grow strong in the Lord and in turn it will help us. The Lord blessed us with safe trips to and from camp, plus lovely wether daily, thunder showers most every evening, but water soaks in fast there so it settled the dust for us. There were trips to the mall, for shopping, to the laundramat, fishing , trips to Box Canyon at Quray, the Grand Mesa and the Black Canyon. Some chose not to go anywhere and stayed at camp all week. Whatever we wanted to do was the agenda. A very relaxing week. Sadness came on Sunday, July 10, when we had to say goodbye. But if it be the Lord's Will, we can all meet again there next July, meeting more christians and non-christians interested in God's Word. There were so many babies and young people this year. Sure hope to see them and many more next year. There is the future of the church. Much love to all the new ones I met and known before.

Each year I meet new people. The church of Christ camp meeting at Cedaredge is a great thing for me and my family. Plan now to see for yourself how 1989 Big Spruce camp meeting will help you and yours.

With christian love, Fern Logan

Beloved christians everywhere:

Camp will be closing all too soon but what a fantastic experience. Twelve (12) of us traveled together from Seattle and we came 1200 miles. I have to say it was worth every hour and mile it took. I have been spiritually filled from every direction. As a mother, I appreciate all the arms that opened to us and helped with the kids. I thank each and every one of you for your efforts in the kitchen and all thru the camp. All the discussions, activities, studies, services, singing, fellwoship and so much more have each contributed to my growth. Plan now for next year. For it was really " good for me to be hear".

My love to all. Lynell Forsman - Seattle, Wa.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

It's hard to express why, for the third year in a row I have made it to Delta. I do know it is not out of convenience-sacrifices are made, but they are made joyfully, knowing the end vastly out-weighs the means. The lessons during the regular services and young men's services were encougaging and inspiring and filled us with a renewed zeal for God's will. The round table discussions, once again, proved that christians can sit down and discuss anything and that it can only lead to closer unity with God. And then there was a different kind of strength to draw from when we would gather after services for hous and sing praises in song. More all compassing is simply being with other people striving for the same goal. As we leave Delta, we leave more dead-to-the-world and more alive in Christ and if anything can, can help us fix our eyes on our highest goal, it is worth returning again and again. Bret Harper

Friends in Christ:

I really enjoyed the fellowship and all of the new friends I made, These friends will last a lifetime, even though some are far away. We all learned so much from each other and gathered so much strength. It helps to know that you are not alone. The singing and Bible discussions were great and young men's services were so neat. There are so many memories and good times, I could never write them all. I guess everyone will have to come and see for themselves next year. People came from as far as Georgia and I don't think anyone regretted the long trip. I have never felt so much love in one place as when we all joined hands around the campfire on saturday night and sang "BLEST BE THE TIE THAT BINDS". The only part I didn't like was saying goodbye. We could of filled an ocean with the tears that were shed when it was time to leave. But as Threasa McKinney said: "We are not saying goodbye, we are saying, see ya next year", and I do hope to see everyone next year. Your won't regret it.

Love always

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The camp meeting of 1988 was a very great experience for me. I had been there several times before, (3 years before) and things have really changed. There were many things that happened to me during that week. I met a lot of good christian friends that I will never forget. I think one of the most memorable moments for me was Kurt Harper and his fish joke. He told me his joke as were singing in the dinner hall after church. We were laughing so hard that we couldn't even sing for about 20 minutes. That night I gained a very good christian friend, who I hope to have always. (Don't forget to keep in touch) The whole meeting made me feel very alive inside and I could never forget it. Lord willing, I will be there again next year and I hope to see you all there too. I could write a book on the memories that were made, but it all boils down to being there and making your own memories.

May God be with you all. Your southern friend;

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

This years' camp meeting was the first time we could make it here in Cedaredge. It was great to hear brethren from different congregations. We met a lot of brothers and sisters in Christ. Paul and I had to work during the week of the meeting, but we did make to the evening services. Stayed at the camp the weekend. So we still got to visit for a little while. It was so sad to see everyone leave. So glad that brother Brian and Sister Angie, Kim, Kayla and Saundra could come from Baron and Stilwell congregation, where we are from. The cooks did a really good job in the kitchen,. Food was the greatest. Saturday morning they had little mens services. Brother Paul and Brother Brian did a great job at that. There were several who came forward for the prayers of the church and 3 were baptized during the meeting. We hope that more brother and sisters can come next year and Lord willing, we will make it again.

Brother Paul and Sister Becky
Cedaredge congregation

I want to say, Delta camp was extremely great this year. I wish everone could have been there to share the wonderful experiences with us. There was studying, singing, discussions on worldliness and choosing a mate, a few games, young men services and so much more. We have had several people come forward and three people got baptized. The angels are singing and rejoicing in heaven, as we here at camp are. One of the fun times was the time we all went to Quray. I rode with Raymond, Mickey, Bent McCay, Eric and Caryn Foundation in Raymond's blue convertable Mustang. When we all got there, after going to box canyon, we walked around to the different shops. By the time we left everyone knew us. Especially the lady in the candy store. I still can't believe that my sister, Shawna spent $7.50 on candy. Jaw breakers for everyone. We were known as the blue shirts because our camp shirts were blue. It was a family affair. I could write a book on all the memories, sucha as, cold showers; ants in the bathroom; the mouse that J.D. killed and the spiders in the dorm rooms. But look at the bright side. The fellowship was great and I met a lot of new people my own age. It help a lot when you know that there are other christians that are traveling the same narrow path as you. We tried a little buddy system and my little buddy was Cedra Wood, age 5. I miss her already. Don't forget to write! That goes for everyone. [11 John 1: 12]

EPHESIANS 2: 1--21

"And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among who also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of the flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh, and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. But God, w;ho is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made us to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by grace ye are saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Wherefore remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinancea; for to make in himself of twain one new man, makeing peace; And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit."

"I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called." [Ephesians 4:1]
