

Peer Pressure (Fear of Man)

One of the challenges that faces us as Christians is peer pressure. We think of this problem facing mainly young people, but in reality it faces us all.

People use different pressures to try to influence us to what they want us to do. While the pressure may come from outside the response to it comes from within. If we are afraid of what others will think, say, or do, the Bible calls this fear of man. It can lead us away from God.

Prov. 29:25 tell us, "The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe."

One snare the fear of man brings is that it can trap us into doing things that are sinful.

In the 26th chapter of Matthew Peter followed Jesus as he was led away to his trial. Matt. 26:57-58, "And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end."

Everybody there was against Jesus, and it began to wear on Peter. The peer pressure got to him, and led him to deny Christ. Matt. 26:69-70, "Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest."

It's tough to get away from this pressure once it starts, as Peter found out. He went out onto the porch, but another girl followed him, and he denied Jesus again (verses 71-72).

Once started, often you're ganged up on, making it that much harder to resist the wrong. They ganged up on Peter, and he began to curse and to swear in his third denial (verses 73-74). When he realized what he had done he wept bitterly (verse 75).

Well, peer pressure can not only lead us to doing what's wrong. It can also lead us to not doing what's right. John 12:42-43, "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God."

So, seeing the damage that the fear of man leads to, we can understand why it is considered sin. Rev. 21:8, "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

So, what do we do about it? How do we overcome the fear of man, and peer pressure?

Let's study these five following traits that will help us overcome the fear of man.

First, FAITH. Psa. 56:3, "What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee." Mark 5:36, "... Be not afraid, only believe."

Second, HOPE. Notice first that Jesus was afraid of what He was to face. Heb. 5:7, "Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared."

But He overcame his fear, and died on the cross for us because of His hope. Heb. 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of God."

We can do the same, focus on our hope when we are afraid.

Third, LOVE. I John 4:18, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

Fourth, STUDY GOD'S WORD. Prov. 24:5, "A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength."

Fifth, PRAYER. Psa. 34:17, "The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles."

These five things lead to action: to overcoming the peer pressure and the fear of man it leads to, and to doing the will of God.

II Tim. 1:7-8, "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God."

Dear Readers,

From looking through past issues of It Is Written and The Christian Courier, it has become obvious that support of the paper in recent months is pretty weak. Many old issues were filled with articles and newsletters. To put out a paper we need materials from you.

Another thing noticed by reading old issues of the paper is that there are quite a number of congregations that no longer exist, or were taken over by the digressive brethren. In the October issue of It Is Written, Bro. Bedingfield wrote that they put out 600 copies of the paper. That is still the number we put out today. As the brethren have mentioned numerous times in the paper, "The fields are white." Where are those out working for the Lord gaining souls for Him?

Cards and Letters

Ringgold, TX

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Ringgold congregation rejoices to announce Joseph Pollan, son of Raymond and Andrea Pollan, was baptized into the church of our Lord September 27th. When our sons and daughters reach the age of understanding and become church members, it really is special to all, but more so to the parents. It is so wonderful to see another generation emerging to continue the work of our Lord. Joseph is a fine young man with a very bright future in Christ.

Any and all that may be in the area of Ringgold, TX, are always welcome to meet with us and stay in our homes.

In Christ to all

Show Low, AZ (10/1)

Hello to all of brothers and sisters in Christ:

We are all doing fine here in Show Low, although we have had a few hard times — Joe's Uncle Hite Davis, the eldest brother to Brothers Harry and Buddy Davis and Sisters Verda Nelson, Ruth Duncan, and Dorothy Calhoun, passed away on the 10th of September. Though he is in a better place, we still feel sorrow and grief because we will miss him so. It has been a struggle for all of the family. Since he lived just 42 miles from us in Saint Johns, we had the pleasure of spending much time with him. He was a wonderful man and a great loss to us all. Thankfully, he had been baptized in his youth, and recently turned his life back to Christ. We ask that you all keep the Davis family in your prayers.

A bit of exciting news to brighten this letter: YeVette Northern, 11 years old, of Show Low, was baptized just a few short weeks ago. We gladly welcome her and our prayers are with her through the trials that every Christian must endure. She is a bright and intelligent girl.

We welcome any of those who happen to journey this way to join us in worship of God. Just come on by, or call (520) 537-4256. All of our love and prayers are with you all.

GOD BLESS YOU ALL!!

Joseph & Diana Davis & family and the Show Low congregation

Show Low, AZ (10/20)

We send our love to all, and our door is always open.

All is going very well around here. We look forward to my parents coming up and staying with us for a few days. It is always so great to have company. We invite others to services, of course, and frequently we are joined from time to time.

Of course, our weather is changing, and the leaves as well. We have already had a few days around the low twenties, or actually the nights; the days are up around the forties and fifties. We look forward to what the winter has to offer.

We hope to make a trip down to Yuma for a few days shortly after my parents go back, but then it is back to having to stick close to home for the winter, for that is when my job is the busiest.

Please write if you would like, or call. We always enjoy hearing from you. Come visit when you can.

Hello to all of the Brotherhood:

A word or two to say hello and hope all are up and going and able to attend services, but many are on the sick list. Please remember the ones here that are ill, as well as all throughout the brotherhood. We are all saddened with the death of Bro. Howard McCay. Bro. Howard and Sister Nell hold such a dear place in our hearts. When we look about the church, kitchen, and the grounds, we have a great reminder of Christian love from Christian people. They worked with their hands and their funds, and needless to say, their hearts. We love them both, and will never forget them. We can all have assurance that Howard is at peace in the Lord by the life he so diligently led.

Our Sister Dorothy Calhoun from Cornelius, OR, spent a few weeks with us when our oldest brother of the Davis family passed away in September. We all enjoyed her being with us, and always look forward to her being with us again.

Sis. Betty Carlson celebrated her eighty-ninth birthday this past week. She, like us all, complains of aches and pains, but it is remarkable how well she gets around and attends every service. This is about all the news for now.

We send our love. May God bless us all.

Sea-Tac, WA

Sept. & Oct. have been a very emotional and trying period here in Seattle. Bro. Howard McCay passed from this life on Sept. 29th at the age of 78 after a long struggle against declining health. He was not in any heavy pain, and died in his sleep. During his last days, he was visited by many loving friends and family. Two and a half weeks later on October 18th, his sister, Anna Lee Warner, 83, of Springfield passed away, as well.

A dual memorial service was held on Oct. 24th in Seattle for both Bro. Howard and Sis. Anna Lee. Bro. Bill McCay, Jr., performed the obituary for Sis. Anna Lee and Bro. J. D. Logan performed the obituary for Bro. Howard. This was followed by a Celebration of Life of both of these beloved Christians. Those attending the service came from all over the states of Washington, Oregon, and California. The Celebration of Life portion of the service took over an hour, as many had a lot of wonderful memories to share of Bro. Howard and Sis. Anna Lee. Afterward, there was a pot luck luncheon and congregational singing, which both Bro. Howard & Sis. Anna Lee would have greatly enjoyed.

Both of these beloved Christians will be sorely missed. They are now resting from their labors, of which the fruit is continuing to grow. Surely they have a place reserved in heaven.

Recently Bro. Lloyd, Sis. Debbie, & Joe Usrey have moved here from the Sacramento, CA, area. They are living near Tacoma, and will be worshipping primarily with the Sea-Tac congregation. They are a welcome addition to our group.

Bro. Garold Morris has missed church services for several months, now. He is still fighting cancer, and has gotten weak. He has been undergoing cancer treatments and blood transfusions, but so far has not made much progress. The cancer has spread in his body. Please remember him and us in your prayers.

In Christian love,

The Sea-Tac, WA, congregation

We Were Blessed

He was so strong, and yet so gentle;
An icon of goodness.
He loved the Lord and loved the Word.
He taught it;
He lived it.
So much patience;
So much love;
Hard working and giving, giving, giving.
He opened his home and
Heart to those in need.
He was the helping hand,
The understanding ear,
The loving husband,
The caring father,
The trusted friend of so many
Near and far.
We loved him so much.
Yes, we were blessed!

In Loving Memory of Howard Elwyn McCay

Jan. 6, 1920 – Sept. 29, 1998

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith ..."
(2 Tim. 4:7-8).

Bro. Howard, 78, was the son of Bro. G. Earl and Sis. Phebe McCay. He had the strong roots and convictions of a preacher's son. Bro. Howard's and Sis. Nell's life together spanned 58 loving years.

The same gift Howard was given by his parents, was passed on to all his children. All of the closeness of family and church were inherent in every aspect of his life.

In 1963, a bunch of the McCay's traveled to Southern California, and for the first time began to meet some of the people that had been so fruitful in the church, and of whom they had heard about for so many years. Faces were finally put to names, and Bro. Howard and his family would never be the same again.

From then on, Bro. Howard traveled all over to as many church meetings as he could possibly get to. There were as many bodies (plus some), as could be fit into his rig. One result from these travels was that at least seven of Washington's guys met and married seven ladies from Texas; and the list goes on.

The passion and fervor with which Bro. Howard spoke left no one untouched. He had a gift for talking to people. Patience and kindness, as well as humor and fun, were just as much a part of Bro. Howard as breathing air. There would be endless singing, singing and more singing whenever Bro. Howard was around — especially praises to the Lord.

There are not many loyal churches that have not had the pleasure of experiencing some of his preaching and teaching, either directly or indirectly. His lessons could bring us up by our boot straps and make each of us take a sudden inventory of where we stood with God.

Bro. Howard was so loved by all. Many others called him Dad, brother, uncle, and grandpa besides just his family. He was present at so many meetings and church fellowship activities, and all were left singing, laughing, telling stories, and feeling so overwhelmed with love and enthusiasm because he was that way himself.

He, like his sister Anna Lee, has surely earned a crown of life that is reserved for the faithful.

In Loving Memory of Anna Lee Warner

Mar. 30, 1915 – Oct. 18, 1998

Sis. Anna Lee, 83, the daughter of Bro. G. Earl and Sis. Phebe McCay, passed away at her home in Springfield, OR, in the company of her husband, Bro. Gerald Warner, and her family. As we recall the years we have known Sis. Anna Lee, it's so hard to summarize in a few words the life and influence of this beautiful (inside & outside), elegant Christian lady. She was the epitome of gracious hospitality and industry. She, like Dorcas (Acts 9:36-42), will be remembered by the beautiful creations of her hands. Yet, what will be remembered the most is her over 70 years of faithful service to her Lord and the church, and the warm, tender, loving heart she had for her family, friends, and her Christian family. She will be greatly missed, but like the Apostle Paul, hers is surely a crown of righteousness that's reserved for the faithful.

The families of Howard McCay and Anna Lee Warner wish to express their love and extreme gratitude to all those who called, sent cards, letters, flowers, e-mail, or showed other expressions of love.

A Thanksgiving Psalm

"O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms. For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also. The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker. For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. ..." (Psalms 95:1-7)
