Christian union.John I7. united.
I.God requires all christians to be uni
2.There is a groun of union on which we can unite with out sacrifice of truth or conscience.
Prop.I.Christ's prayer.John I7;20;2I.
"Neither pray I for these alone,ect.
How are Father and Son one? ect.
JohnIO;I6."and there shall be one fold
Rom.I2;4"So we being many are one body in Christ."
ICor.I;IO:I3.read.
ICor.3;3-7.read.Icor.4;6.read.
Same in speach,mind and judgement.
Favoritism is carnality and is wrong.
2.Some grounds on which we cannot unite.
Catholics;Mormons;ect.
What is to be done?
Let us listen to the apostle Paul.
IITim.3;I6"All scriptureeet.ect. "
You all agree that this is true.
must to be inspired word.
But a man says :Our creed is just like the bible.
Another:The creed makes the bible plain.
Why can not the different churches unite theyall believe the bible is true.

But some one says"We are getting along all right if you would let us alone."
Look at conditions:Father and mother goi going different roads.
Should we not be satisfied withGod's way, the straight and narrow way?

Who will be to blame for failure to convert the world?
