NO CONDEMNATION TO THEM. ROM. 8-1

There is no condemnation to them which are in Christ, who walk not after the flesh but after the spirit. Why should we walk after the Spirit in order to not be condemned? ans. Rom. 8-2. The law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death, V.3 that the Righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit. Now to walk after the FLESH is to mix, in or to partake of, Adultery, fornication, uncleaness lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance emulations wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envieings murders drunkenness, revealings, and such like. Eph. 5-17-21. Of which I tell you before, as I also have told you in times past, that they that do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. In those few words are a number of things, of which any one or more, be found in the Child of God, it will keep them from entering heaven, for the law of the Spirit of Life, has made us free from all those things, and we must study to know what those things are. 2 Tim. 2-15. Or we will follow after, some of those things. For they are common things of this life, which are contrary to the law of life. And since we find ourselves in this life, it is natural that we are subject to those things, and this is where the fight of faith starts first with ourselves, and then with others, for they that are Christ's have crucified, the flesh with the affections and LUST. Then to love the world, or to mix with the world is to deny the Father, 1 John 2-15-17. But when we walk after the spirit. Eph 5-25 we will have love, joy, peace, longsuffering, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance for against such there is no law. Eph. 5-22. and if there is no law against then they that walk after those things there is no condemnation if they are in Christ. But then those that follow after those things and are not in Christ have lost all. For they have not obeyed Christ from the heart, and washed their sins away. Acts. 22-16; Heb. 5-8-9. John 9-31 and God will not hear a sinner, although he may do good in all things that he does, he has not submitted his self to the commands of God in obedience. Rom. 10-1-3. And so the condemnation rest upon him for disobedience, 2, Thes. 1 8 9. Rom. 1 16 17 18. Having obeyed from the heart the commands of God, we then become the servants of God, to serve in Spirit and truth, as he directs in his word. Col. 1-18, St. John, 6-63. Being not conformed to the world but transformed by the renewing of the mind, Rom. 12-1-2. Therefore, to be in Christ, we become a new creature 2 Cor. 5-17 The old things are passed away, and the new life starts, then we live faithful to the new life, there will be no condemnation, but if and when we forget to add to our faith, virtue, knowledge temperance, patience, Godliness brotherly kindness and love. 2 Pet. 1-5-11 we forget that we were purged from our old sins and then we are back in condemnation. Just like the churches in Asia, Rev. 2-3 Those Churches had purified their souls in obedience, but most of them, was doing things that God did not approved of, and were rebuked for their disobedience, thus if they did not repent would suffer the vengeance of God, to many of todoy are trying to establish their iwn righteousness, Rom. 10-3 and not submit to the righteousness of God. I would that all men could say that they had obeyed the commands of God and received the promise. 1 John 2-25 but since it remains that a great many have not received that promise through obedience then it is necessary to keep on teaching to every creature. Matt 28-18-20. The commands of God, and be longsuffering to all not willing that any should perish but hope that all will come to repentance. 2 Pet. 3-9. for the vengeance belongs to God Heb. 10-30 and he will repay therefore it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God, Heb. 10-31 for God is a consuming fire. Heb. 12-29 and the wrath of man will not work the righteousness of God, Jam. 1-20 so we should lay aside all filthiness and suberfluity of naughtiness and receive with meekness the engrafted word that will be able to save our soulls. Jam. 1-21. For God is not mocked, whatsoever we sow that we shall also reap. Gal. 6-7-8. The Editor

CHURCH NEWS

There is not much to report this time about the churches over the country it seems like they have forgotten that we want to hear from them, and that it is necessary to report where the churches meet regularly, so that people can know where to stop over when traveling through the country. I hope that all of you will take time to report your location and give a few words to print about your worship, and if you have anything to say about the paper that you will send it to me. The churches here are still meeting in the same places, at Broken Bow and out in the country, about 3 miles east of Broken Bow on Highway 70, ½ mile north and all is welcome to be with us. The church at Stillwell sent in a report that Bro. Earl Atchley had moved down close to them and they was glad to have them to work with them and invite all who will to stop over and be with them. Thanks for the news and support. The Editor.

A letter from Bro. Stout of Eola, Texas states that he is well and sends in some support. Thanks Bro. Stout. Keep the news coming. The Editor
