The INCOMPARABLE

More than 1900 years ago there was a man born contrary to the laws of nature. The man lived in poverty, and was reared in obscurity. He ~~did not travel extensively~~. possessed neither wealth nor influence. His relatives were inconspicious, and had no traing, nor formal education.

In infancy He startled a king; in childhood He puzzled doctors; In manhood He ruled the course of nature.

He healed the multitudes without medicine and made no charges for His service.

He never wrote a book, yet all the libraries of the country could not hold the books that have been written about Him.

He never wrote a song, and yet He has furnished the theme for more songs than all the song writers combined.

He never founded a college, but all the schools put together cannot boast of having as many students.

He never marshalled an army, and no leader ever had more volunteers. He never practiced psychiatry, and yet He has healed more broken hearts than all the doctors far and near.

Once each week the wheels of commerce cease their turning and multitudes pay homage and respect to Him.

The names of the past statesmen, scientists, philosophers, and theologians have come and gone; but the name of this man abounds more and more, through 1900 years have passed since His crucifixion, yet He still lives. Herod could not destroy Him, and the grave could not hold Him.

He stands forth upon the highest pinnacles of heavenly glory, proclaimed of God, acknowledged by angels, adored by saints, and feared by devils, as the living, personal Christ, our Lord and Saviour and King.

Author unknown.

The Incomparable

More than nineteen hundred years ago there was a man born contrary ~~to nature~~ the laws of nature. This man lived in poverty and was reared in obscurity, He did not travel extensively.

He possessed neither wealth nor influence. His relatives were inconspicious, and had neither training nor formal education.

In Infancy He startled a king; In childhood He puzzled doctors, in manhood He ruled the course of nature.

He healed the multitudes without medicine and made no charge for His service.

He never wrote a book, and yet all the libraries of the country could not hold the books that have been written about Him.

He never wrote a song, and yet He has furnished the theme for more songs than all the song writers combined.

He never founded a college, but all the schools put together cannot boast of having as many students.

He never marshaled an army, and no leader ever had more volunteers.

He never practiced phychiatry, yet He has healed more broken hearts than all the doctors far and near.

Once each week the wheels of commerce cease their turning and multudes pay homage and respect to Him.

The names of the past proud statesmen, scientists, philosophers and theologians have come and gone; but the name of this man abounds more and more. Though nineteen hundred years have passed since His crucifixion, yet He still lives. Herod could not destroy Him, and the grave could not hold Him.

He stands forth upon the highest pinnacle of heavenly glory, Proclaimed of God, acknowledged by angels, adored by saints, and feared by devils, as the living personal Christ, our Lord and Saviour and King.

Author unknown.

Heb 2,9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with Glory and Honor; That He by the geace of God should taste death for every man.

Heb 5,8 Though He were a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which He suffered. 9 And being made perfect, He became the author of eternal salvation to all them that obey Him.

Jn. 1,11 He came to His own, (the Israelites) and His own received Him not. 12 But as many as received Him, to them gave he them to become The Sons of God, even to them that believe on His name.

Jn. 20,31 And many other signes did Jesus in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the, Son of God; and that believeing ye might have life through His name.

Just before Jesus ascended He commanded the disciples, Go ye ~~the~~ into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature, ~~16~~ Mk. 16,15-16 He that believeth and is baptized shall ve saved But He that believeth ~~sha~~ not shall be damneed.

J.H. Lackey Church of Christ.